Presentation
Proposal
For CAHF & QCHF
The Audience

CAHF statewide meetings - three times a year - as well as QCHF educational seminars draw a wide variety of long-term care professionals. Administrators, owners, DONs, DSDs, Dietary Specialists, Human Resource Specialists and Social Service Professionals. Each of these professionals require continuing education to keep their licenses current and their professional skills honed.

Presentation Proposal

Complete the following and submit along with your resume to Sally Craven or Jim Koontz c/o CAHF, 2201 K Street, Sacramento, CA 95816 or fax to: (916) 441-6441.

QUALITY
CARE HEALTH
FOUNDATION

About CAHF & QCHF

The California Association of Health Facilities (CAHF) is a statewide professional association for both for profit and non proprietary long term care providers with over 1,200 facility members and 250 associate members. The Quality Care Health Foundation is the educational arm of CAHF offering seminars, symposia and web based education throughout the state. Additionally, QCHF administers a number of workforce and employment grants for health care workers.

CAHF & QCHF are looking for qualified presenters. All completed Presentation Proposals will be reviewed to determine which classes or sessions will best meet the needs of our audience at any given time. A proposal might not fit an immediate need, but will be kept on file for future opportunities. CAHF & QCHF use presentations of anywhere from one-hour to a full-day. And occasionally multiple days. If your presentation fits, you will be contacted for additional information.
